Universidad Tecnológica de Chihuahua
Ángel Iván López Delgado
Evidence 1-1. Indirect Speech (say, tell and ask)
September 29, 2026

Reported Speech Exercises

1. She said that nothing grew in her garden and that it never got any sun.
2. He told his mother that he was going away the next day.
3. Rupert said that he had been in London for a month but that so far he hadn't had time to visit the Tower.
4. The BBC announcer said that the new underpass was being officially opened two days later.
5. She replied that she would come with me as soon as she was ready.
6. The small boy said that he had a German lesson that afternoon and that he hadn't done his homework yet.
7. The boy asked who was going to live in the big house.
8. Bill asked which team had won the previous match.
9. The young wife said that she didn't think his father liked her.
10. Her husband told her not to say that and exclaimed that it was nonsense.
11. He said that he had found an old Roman coin in the garden the day before and that he was going to take it to the museum that afternoon.
12. Ann asked me if I had seen the new library.
13. My aunt asked whether a return ticket was cheaper than two singles.
14. He told me to get out of his way and said that if I didn't, he would call the police.
15. The assistant asked me to pay at the desk.
16. His secretary asked him whether he was leaving that day or the next morning.
17. He asked her why she thought it might be dangerous.
18. He ordered Tom to switch off the TV and said that he didn't like those reality shows.
19. He warned me not to believe everything I heard.
20. I told Mary not to touch that switch because the wire was not very safe.
21. Helena asked me what I was going to study.
22. He said that if I left home at six, I should be there by nine.
23. He told his friends that he was quite a good cook and that he did all his own washing and mending too.
24. Tom said that the puppy could sleep in their bed, but his wife said that she would rather he slept in a basket. She added that the puppy would soon be a very big dog and that then there wouldn't be room for all three of them.
25. The farmer said that he had had gypsies on his land for two years and that they had given nobody any trouble, but that now the Council had asked him to tell them to move on. He added that he didn't see why they should be asked to move and that he was writing to his MP about it.
26. The passenger asked me if I would mind moving my case because it was blocking the door.
27. I asked if I could speak to Albert. His mother said that he was still asleep. I asked her to wake him because I had news for him.
28. Peter suggested going for a walk. Ann said that she liked walking, but that at that moment her only comfortable walking shoes were being mended, and she suggested going for a drive instead.
29. Ann said that Jack's parents had asked her to supper the following night and asked what she should wear. Her mother advised her to wear something warm because it was a terribly cold house.
30. The policeman told us to avoid Marble Arch because there was going to be a big demonstration there.
31. He apologized for playing the music so loudly. The neighbour accepted his apology but warned him that she would call the police the next time if he continued with the loud music after midnight.

32. She asked if she could have that shirt. The shop assistant handed it to her and said that it was a wonderful shirt, but warned her to be careful when washing it. She advised her to wash it in cold water in case the colours faded.
33. Mary told her mother not to worry and said that she would bring all the shopping into the house. Her mother thanked her and exclaimed how willing to help she was. Then she suggested going to the cinema later and said that she would invite her to have dinner out.